

ABSTRACT

Photocurable resin compositions are provided that are most useful in stereolithography. A photocurable resin includes a urethane acrylate oligomer, an acrylate monomer, and a polymerization modifier. The resin after curing provides a solid product that 5 has characteristics that can depend on the resin composition.

40163236.doc